

Arriving in Romania

Visa requirements:

Most residents from the EU don't need a visa to travel to Romania. However, a valid passport is required for all international visitors. There is no entry or departure tax. The countries whose citizens are required to have a visa without an invitation are: Israel, the Russian Federation, Serbia and Montenegro and Turkey. A visa can be obtained from the nearest Romanian Embassy or consulate.

By plane:

The Cluj-Napoca International airport is situated at about 12 km from the centre of the city. For the timetable of the international flights please visit: www.airportcluj.ro

Taxi: about 4.5-5 € to the Diaconal Centre.

By train:

Coming from the west you can reach Cluj-Napoca from Budapest.

The distance from the railway station to the Diaconal Centre is 5 km.

Further Information: www.cfr.ro

Traffic information in general:

In Cluj-Napoca the easiest way to travel is by taxi. Taxis can be ordered at anytime by ringing at 942, 944, 948 or 953. We are recommending: Terra-Fan, Rapid, Diesel, Nova and Pritax which have the best prices (0.35 EUR/km).

The FEPTO meeting will be held at the Diaconal Centre, Ponorului Street no.1, Cluj-Napoca. The meeting "Appolon with Dyonisos" will be followed by a post-conference, organized for trainees, trainers and practitioners, from the 30th of April until the 2nd of May 2006, with the topic "Theory in Practice of Different Approaches in Psychodrama". The post conference will facilitate trainees and trainers to meet trainees and trainers from other FEPTO member Institutes, to share and to exchange experiences. It will also give opportunity for trainees to experience the different approaches in psychodrama by trainers of their fellow European Institutes. The trainers can also meet other trainers to have an exchange about the topic of supervision.

Guests' invitation

One representative from Training Institutes or Accrediting Organizations who are applying for membership or has the intention to apply is welcome to our meeting as a guest. The guests should have the company of a FEPTO member to guide them during the meeting. The registration fee is the same, accommodation is not included.
