Welcome to the 16th FEPTO Annual Meeting, Bearsden, Scotland

Welcome to Glasgow – popularly known as ‘the dear Green place’ – host to the Commonwealth Games in 2014. Glasgow is a wonderfully, vibrant and cosmopolitan city which encompasses the cutting edge of music, fashion, art and finance.

Walking through the city of Glasgow, you’ll be struck by the blend of contemporary alongside traditional architecture. Students travel from all over the world to study at our universities and in particular, at the Glasgow School of Art – an amazing building which would stand up against any contemporary designs we have nowadays. Designed by Charles Rennie Mackintosh, right in the heart of Glasgow, the School of Art is worth a visit in itself.

Scotland is home to many great Scots. Without Fleming, Baird and Watt, we wouldn’t have penicillin, television or the steam engine – in that order! And let’s not forget the creativity of Rabbin Burns!

We meet in Bearsden, a small town on the outskirts of Glasgow which is conveniently located close to Ben Lomond and the shores of Loch Lomond. Just a twenty-minute drive away. On the site of the bonnie shores, you may be prompted to ask – could I belong here? And if so, what clan do I belong to?

Let’s use this conference to open ourselves up to the spontaneity of creating and developing our own innovative path in psychodrama across Europe.
