

COUNTRY	Map
----------------	------------

GENERAL and contextual information, important to know, about your country. e.g. historical facts, number of inhabitants or characteristics as geographical or cultural (language) regions.

HISTORY of Psychodrama in the country. Roots of PD in your country?

When (and where and how) did the PD practice started, and the PD training?

Who were the organising pioneers and invited trainers. What was their orientation? In what context did this happened?

Was there at some moment a founding of a group, society, national association for PD. Where there other important national PD events? Or an evolution?

PRESENT STATE of PD in the country.

Is there a National Accrediting PD organisation (with address and actual chair)

How many members? How many accredited as PD-tist, as PD assistant, or as trainee members. Is there a structural distinction between psychodramatist psychotherapists / psychodramatist in other fields? Proportion in the members. Evolution

List of the Training Institutes (also not FEPTO members) with addresses

State of recognition of PD by the political authorities, professional associations, universities.

Practice (common daily): in what contexts is PD more utilized? Clinical, educational, cultural, social, organisational development ...

Particularities about PD in the country

National activities: organisation of national or international or regional meetings. Links with other organisations like IAGP, NAO of EAP? Participation in the university training.

Do you have in your country PD journals and very important PD books?

Note: Such a text has to be in a good way the expression of the PD community in the country. So, please, discuss it and send it to read to colleagues of other training institutes. Thank you.